

FOREWORD

Letter from Connie

Dear Reader,

My name is Connie, and I'm delighted to be a part of this project to share information with humanity. Not too long ago, I was highly skeptical and only believed what my eyes saw—until my autistic son, Daniel, “came out of the closet” with his spiritual gifts. He and the Autist Collective have converted me. I have witnessed magic firsthand during these chaotic times. The Autists have been great educators and guides to the New Earth.

From the beginning, after I learned about my son, he was adamant that he needed to share his knowledge about the New Earth with the world and wanted me to be his voice. Being the shy gal that I am, I outright refused. How could I do this? What platform would I use? Who would believe me?

I got involved with this project because of the sincerity of the others involved: the author Alex Marcoux, the channel

Shauna Kalicki, and my son gently nudged me to put my energy into this book. It is time to share and for me to come out of my shell. I no longer fear being ridiculed or perceived as crazy, nor should any of you. What is crazy is to accept the information being fed to you simply because the majority agrees with it.

It is time for humanity to have a new and different experience to discover the New Earth. This book will permit readers to learn about it and realize that they are in it and need to relish its beauty.

I am the transcriber of the channeling sessions involved with this project. I provide structure to the sessions by creating follow-up questions for clarity. I have read many New Age, spiritual, and New Thought books and was often left scratching my head confused about what I just read. I wished someone could break it down for me in an easier-to-understand way.

Our group made every effort to make this book easy to understand, especially for those new to this “woo” spiritual world. Yet, we trust that those who have been on the path will find jewels within also.

Most importantly, this book was created and written with love and integrity. I utilized my intuition to discern the information coming through the channel and validated that information through Daniel, who uses a plastic communication board to communicate. The Autist Collective is a group of “silent” heroes who have been ushering in the New Earth and shedding light for humanity to witness this birthing and reveal how genuinely divine you are. As you read this book, I hope you experience the joy, magic, and love that went into its creation.

It is truly an honor to be here in these epic times with each one of you. This project has been a wonderful learning experience for me, and I hope it is for you.

As I finished typing this message to you, I asked Daniel if he wanted to share something with the readers.

He typed on my laptop keyboard, “Welcome home.” He is welcoming you to the New Earth, and let this book be your guide.

Much love,

Connie

Letter from Shauna Kalicki

Dear Reader,

Welcome to this book and perhaps some interesting insights for you to ponder. I have known Connie, Daniel, and Alex since 2016. We have shared many magical moments. Some have been intense, while others have been whimsical—yet all have been life-changing for me.

Alex asked if I would channel for this book. Admittedly, at first, while I was comfortable tapping the information for our small group and myself, I hadn’t shared it with others like you. Throughout my life, I have experienced insights and wisdom from Archangels, some Ethereal Autists, and Ascended

DESTINATION New Earth

Masters, particularly the Magdalenes. In 2018, I began channeling Cerian, a sixteenth-dimensional collective. Sharing this information with the world was a bit of a leap for me and, ultimately, my gift to you.

This book is an endeavor of love and carries hope and encouragement for each of us. Remember to surrender to your True Self.

In light, love, and service,

Shauna

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I AM GRATEFUL TO THOSE drawn to this book. Yes, you, the reader, for you are in fifth-dimensional consciousness. You have shown up to do the work. This book is part of your spiritual awakening. Whether you consider yourself awake, partially awake, or not awake, Daniel shares, “This book is a bridge to understanding a new perspective. Be open to the miracles it will ignite within.” What you do with this knowledge is choice, though our group hopes you seek, live your spiritual blueprint, and share this material with people of like minds. That is how this book will get into the right hands, specifically, those on a path of ascension.

I thank our team for their contributions to this book—their friendship and coming into my life. Shauna, for your willingness, abilities, and commitment to channeling. Connie, for the endless hours of transcriptions, reading, guidance, and seeking clarification from Daniel. Daniel, for your patience with me, for showing up big, and for everything you do for humanity. I am grateful for those beings who provided messages, particularly Daniel, Mother Mary, and Cerian. I am thankful for the Autist Collective and all their work and all beings involved in this great awakening.

I can't thank my editor enough, Donna Mazzitelli, for taking a personal interest in our project and going beyond the call of duty. Thank you, Delta Donohue, for your proofing, Victoria Wolf, for the magnificent cover and layout. I am grateful to Laurie Bain of Primal Painter for her extraordinary vision and artwork in designing the cover image.

I thank Team Blue Ray for holding space and energetically supporting the birth of this project. Che, for reading and suggesting, namaste.

I am grateful to my son for his love. I cannot thank Robyn enough for her love and for permitting me space to write and be me. To my family and friends, those named and unnamed, who have supported me in this journey, you are my heroes, and I love you all.

INTRODUCTION

All great truths begin as blasphemies.

—George Bernard Shaw

THERE IS A SHIFT IN CONSCIOUSNESS occurring on our planet. We are witnessing and experiencing the spiritual evolution of humanity. Many await the prophesized return of Jesus, or the Second Coming, for the last Day of Judgment. Some also expect the emergence of the New Heavens and New Earth as being the final state of redeemed humanity.

What if no savior is coming? What if the New Earth is already here? What if you only need to shift your perspective to experience it? And what if “all this” is a game to see if you awaken to the truth about who you are?

Destination New Earth depicts conversations between the Masters and me. The “Masters” I refer to are Mother Mary, an Ethereal Autist named Daniel, and Cerian, a higher-dimensional consciousness speaking through one voice. Some of these dialogues occurred while Shauna Kalicki, a psychic medium, channeled the beings. Other discussions occurred while Connie asked her son, Daniel, to verify or expand on topics emerging in the channeling sessions.

The channeling sessions were prearranged to answer questions (unknown to the channel) about the New Earth. The emerged conversations took us in surprising directions, challenged my New Thought beliefs, and brought up information we believe humanity needs to hear.

Within this text, I dialogue with Ascended Masters about the New Earth and the role of Autists in humanity's spiritual evolution. The content explores the energetic connection between ancient peoples throughout time, revealing that the fall in consciousness in Lemuria and Atlantis was intentional and that this life is a game we chose to play. Or did we? What if, to remain in control, some didn't play by the rules at the game's onset?

The evolution of humanity begins with each awakening to their authentic self and living their divine blueprint. Each person has a unique role to play in this spiritual evolution. When we awaken to our purpose and live authentically, we become part of a much larger plan to assist humanity in this journey to the New Earth.

There is a spiritual war occurring. It is a real war and has real casualties: those surrendering their sovereignty. Without reaching a critical mass of people who awaken, humanity's evolution is at risk. Some parties fight to assist humanity in this spiritual evolution, while others attempt to control humankind and prevent people from awakening to their true selves.

Each person has a role in this journey. If your part is to evolve in this consciousness shift, this book is for you.

I recognize that conveying deep topics is challenging for any writer. The first time I read Eckhart Tolle's A New Earth, I felt uneducated. Don't get me wrong, Mr. Tolle is brilliant and an excellent teacher, but it was as if I was reading a different language or had picked up a book in the middle of a series and missed the earlier books. I do not want you to have that same experience while reading this material.

Some of this information is deep. To support each person's experience, and to provide definitions for terms and names you might not be familiar with, I created an extensive glossary at the back of this book and online at my website (alexmarcoux.com/ascension-glossary). We are all on different paths, and I don't want to lose anyone.

Since 2011, I have been on a path learning about what this book introduces as "Pure Autism." Who are the Pure Autists, and what do they have to do with humanity's spiritual evolution? To simplify, let's just say they are higher spiritual beings. I've devoted the past decade to learning from them, studying, and writing books like The Unsuspected Heroes and Destination New Earth.

Over the years, I've sensed that some spiritual teachers, particularly those asking to be followed, were not authentic. Yet, I've never felt inauthenticity with the Autists. They've never asked to be followed nor demanded anything from anyone.

They are here serving us and asking much of their families and caregivers to support them while doing their work, all because they love us.

I used fiction to communicate their stories in The Unsuspected Heroes. I chose that path because it felt safer to reveal what I'd learned in a novel. This book is nonfiction. However, as the novel reads "out of this world," so will Destination New Earth because the truth is unbelievable. There is no doubt that some readers will dub this book blasphemous. Others will cry, "Conspiracy theory!"

This information is not exactly warm and fuzzy. Some of it is downright controversial. But it is time to make it known to humanity. Destination New Earth will resonate with some, while others will be challenged by it. Although it is not yet clear where you will fit, I ask that you read this with an open heart and mind. That is your job. My job is to convey the information that resonates as Truth.

Deep gratitude for you and all that you do,
Alex Marcoux

PART I

In the Beginning

CHAPTER 1:

Truth with a Capital "T"

When more and more people resonate by living their Truth, individually, they are a note. Collectively they are a symphony.

—Cerian

EVER SINCE I CAN REMEMBER, I have searched for Truth. No, that capital "T" on Truth is not a typo. I am not referring to the truth as something factual or a deeply held belief. What I mean is that I have searched for the Truth about God, the meaning of life, who we are, and why we are here.

As a fourth-grader, I remember Sister Clara asking me to stand before my classmates and unexpectedly drilling me with questions regarding religion. This oral examination was the first my teacher had given our class, so I was a bit surprised and nervous. With each correct answer to her questions, however, my confidence grew. Then she asked, “Out of all the apostles, who betrayed Jesus?”

“Peter,” I said.

“That is wrong,” smiling, almost taking delight in my error.

“Peter denied Jesus Christ three times,” I squeaked out. “Judas was Jesus’s loyal friend.”

“Peter indeed denied Christ, but Judas betrayed him by handing him over to the authorities for some coins.”

We had a few other words; then, I heard something that has never left me. Sister Clara called me a “dumb Marcoux.” Those two words stayed with me, and I somehow pledged to prove her wrong.

I share that story not to mar your impression of the nun but to thank her publicly. Undoubtedly, being labeled “dumb” motivated me to prove otherwise to protect my father’s name. More importantly, it steered me on a path to search for many Truths lost to humanity.

I grew up Roman Catholic. Our family was deep-rooted in its traditions; I even had an aunt who was a nun and an uncle who was a priest. My parents expected that I follow the faith. As a young girl, I thought about being a priest but learned I couldn’t because I was the wrong sex. The message from this blatant sexual discrimination was that only men were good enough to receive the sacrament of ordination, or holy orders. That was something that never felt right with me.

When one of my older cousins married a Jewish man, my uncle, the priest, forbade the family to attend my cousin's wedding. The family became estranged over this incident for decades, and healing did not begin until my uncle passed away.

My experiences told me that the Church holds great control over people and families. When I divorced my husband in my early twenties, the Church's rules prevented me from participating in the sacrament of Holy Communion during mass. Then, it turned its back on me once again when I chose the companionship of a same-sex partner.

When researching one of my earlier novels, I dove into the Old Testament and was horrified that Jehovah hardened the people's hearts so they would resist Him—so He could slaughter them (Joshua 6, 10; Exodus 10). I did not recall this information being part of my CCD (Confraternity of Christian Doctrine) education when I was in high school.

As an adult, I broached the subject with my mother, trying to understand how she could follow a faith with such a God. She said she hadn't read the Bible, as they were discouraged to do so but were encouraged to follow on blind faith and the Church's interpretations provided to the congregants.

The Church has many secrets, and some are coming to light, like in 1969 after the Second Vatican Council when it quietly announced that Mary Magdalene was no longer the whore in the New Testament, but that's the tip of the iceberg.

I am not anti-Catholic; in fact, I am grateful that I grew up in the Church. It provided a rich foundation of information, instilled a curiosity within me, and indirectly encouraged that I ask questions. Some answers to my questions provide opportunities for healing humanity, which has led me to write this book.

SYNCHRONICITIES AND THE ROSE

Throughout my life, synchronicities, meaningful coincidences have guided me. Sometimes I get the messages right away, while other times, it can take years for the lightbulb to go off, and then, after the fact, I know the sign's meaning.

The first synchronicities I recall were when I was in my twenties and involved the rose. At the time, plentiful appearances or signs of the rose became so mysterious that I ended up getting two tattoos of a rose when it wasn't exactly fashionable for women to get tattoos.

Decades later, while searching for Truth, I learned that the rose and lily symbolize Mary Magdalene or the Magdalenes (a group of Essenes that included Mary Magdalene, Yeshua (Jesus), Mother Mary, Anna, and many others). Only recently, it hit me that my grandmother on my mother's side was Lillia LaFleur (meaning "lily the flower"), and my paternal grandmother's maiden name was Derosier, meaning "from the rose bushes." Could the Universe have been telling me all along to seek the Truth in the Magdalene line?

In any case, my quest for Truth has been lifelong, and many of my lessons and discoveries have made their way into earlier novels and my spiritual self-help book, Lifesigns: Tapping the Power of Synchronicity, Serendipity and Miracles.

THE UNSUSPECTED HEROES

In 2011, I was connected with Gayle Lee and Lyrica Marquez through an odd referral. They hired me to help them move their book, AWEtizm: A Hidden Key to Our Spiritual Magnificence, into the marketplace. To say that this interaction changed my life is an understatement. The two women welcomed me into their world, one of the sacred mysteries involving autism. As our friendship grew, I was astonished by their story. When their book failed to get the messages out into the mainstream, they asked me to write their story.

After denying them once, when they asked a second time, I agreed to write a novel inspired by their lives and the lives of other autistics I had the honor of meeting. Their story is so out of this world, I thought, Why not write it as fiction? Maybe then their truth would be less threatening.

That book is The Unsuspected Heroes, the story of a young autistic girl who is an Ascended Master reincarnated with autism. Her autism is her chosen disguise to hide from dark forces so that the Autists can work without interference to do their part in the planetary ascension. While that book is visionary fiction, it is about the Autists' work on the planet.

For those unfamiliar with the term, the Ascended Masters are beings who ascended to the higher realms (dimensions) in earlier lifetimes. There are many Masters, but we are often only familiar with Jesus, Mother Mary, Buddha, Anna, St. Germaine, and St. Francis in our western world. The simple truth, however, is that there are many others. And many Masters have chosen to return to our planet to assist in what's happening as we face humanity's spiritual evolution.

At one point in my life, I attended an introductory intuition training workshop and saw substantial growth in my creativity. Because of this, I completed the Association for Research and Enlightenment (A.R.E.) Edgar Cayce Institute for Intuitive Studies Wayshower's program.

During this intuition and psychic training, I had several professional psychic readings as part of the courses, and a couple of readings revealed some interesting information. One psychic said I would have access to the Akashic records one day and write books that would reveal Truths to heal consciousnesses. The Akashic records are a compilation of all past, present, and future thoughts, events, emotions, and intentions of all lifeforms encoded in the ethers. Another psychic called me a healer, not a "hands-on" type healer but one who would heal on a planetary level.

While these comments were memorable, they never hit home with me until recently. Two of the contributors to this book are Connie and her son, Daniel. Daniel is one of the autistics who inspired The Unsuspected Heroes. When I first met Connie and her family, there was an instant trust between us. I recall sharing some things about myself that I hadn't shared with anyone. I am usually very private, so this was out of character.

Likewise, as I became more involved with researching and writing The Unsuspected Heroes, my interactions with Connie, her husband, and Daniel increased. During this early "getting to know you" period, the family shared many personal and private stories with me. At some point, I asked why they trusted me with their information. Connie turned to Daniel and asked him why they felt so comfortable sharing with me.

Daniel, an Ethereal Autist who works in the ethers with energies, communicates through facilitated communication. He answered, "Because she is the Medicine Woman."

Facilitated communication (FC) is a supported typing method that helps some nonspeaking autistics communicate. Because many autistics do not fully physically embody, and most of their essence remains in the higher dimensions, they are not always in control of their bodies, making simple typing difficult. In FC, a facilitator holds and stabilizes the autistic's wrist, hand, or arm so that the autistic types. The facilitator does not guide the autistic but provides slight resistance so that the autistic points to the keys with more accuracy.

I knew it was imperative to get the Ethereal Autists' story into the world. But it was only recently, during the launch of The Unsuspected Heroes, that I connected Daniel calling me the Medicine Woman with the earlier psychic readings about accessing the Akashic records and writing books revealing Truths to heal the planet. I now know it is the Ethereal Autists who have access to the Akashic records, and it is my honor to share the information with the world in the hopes that it heals the planet.

Historically, books communicating truths or information that certain parties did not want to have shared were confiscated and burned to prevent the material from being read. These acts occurred in our ancient past, Middle Ages, and happen even today. It is censorship. Another form of control not often discussed is algorithmic censorship.

Algorithms control what we can find on the internet. Every day we search our computers or phones with search engines like Google, Bing, or Yahoo. And we search for products and books with search engines like Amazon, the largest online e-commerce retailer.

As an SEO specialist during my daytime job, I know that people manipulate algorithms, and the algorithms change all the time. The algorithms control which products rank, in other words, which products you see when you search for something. Some books can be published and listed correctly with appropriate SEO factors yet never rank.

You found this book somehow, and I am incredibly grateful for your attention to this material. I ask a favor, however. If you find this material interesting and helpful on your ascension journey, would you please share the information with those you know who would benefit from it? This information is important and needs to be understood. I trust people to spread the news, not computer-implementable instructions.

I do not want anyone to get the impression that I am asking you to follow us. If this information resonates and you are eager to learn more, I hope you read the visionary fiction books, beginning with The Unsuspected Heroes, as they are full of insights. I will continue that series, sharing truths in fiction as more is revealed to me. More importantly, I hope this book opens you to your Truth. If you have not opened that door to your Christic Consciousness, I invite you not to follow but join us on this journey, destination New Earth.

CHAPTER 2:

The Parties Coming Together

It doesn't matter how slow you go, so long as you do not stop!

—Confucius

OVER TWENTY YEARS AGO, I was at a conference with a friend, and she was walking me to my hotel room. While we walked the hallway, my friend's voice changed, and she started saying things that didn't make sense to me.

She repeatedly said, "Alex, you are special. You need to get moving."

I always cringe at the word "special." I've always believed that either no one is special or everyone is special. But I let that part pass and asked, "Why do I have to get moving?"

“Because we need to raise the consciousness of the planet!” she said seriously.

I had no idea what she was saying. After the conference, I sent her a note reminding her of our conversation and asked what she meant by raising the planet’s consciousness. She was clueless and did not remember that part of our conversation.

How could she not? The chat was so unusual and stayed with me. I didn’t understand what she meant.

When I shared this story with Connie, she reminded me that Autists “talk” through other people to deliver messages. She indicated that she was aware that Daniel had done this a few times. Could it have been an Ethereal Autist? When I look back, I realize it wasn’t the first time I received messages in this manner.

Today, the phrase “raise the consciousness of the planet” seems so popular, so much so that it has become a cliché and lost meaning. But I don’t want to assume you know what it means.

There is a change occurring on our planet.

That change impacts all of us, and all of us affect the change.

Humankind has a crucial role in this change.

That change is a planetary shift in consciousness.

Consciousness is the awareness of the self, thoughts, beliefs, feelings of the world around us. There is much discussion in the various texts about what it means to raise consciousness. Can we consider for a moment that raising consciousness is to elevate our vibration of who we are from an energetic perspective?

Everything is energy. Energy vibrates and oscillates at a specific speed and frequency. Frequency is the rate at which the energy vibrates. Everything, including humans, has a vibrational frequency. The higher the vibrational frequency, the greater one experiences peace, joy, and clarity. As our frequency rises, we can shift our awareness of ourselves to new levels.

The shift in consciousness is known by other names, like planetary ascension, the paradigm shift, humanity's spiritual evolution, but my favorite is the New Earth. There are books by many others on the New Earth, from religious leaders, philosophers, academics, and those with more letters after their names than me. So, what does this book provide that makes it unique? Hang on.

The first Autist to reach out to me was Lyrica Marquez, who communicates with her mother through facilitated communication. This mother and daughter communication evolved over decades and eventually integrated telepathy with supported typing. Telepathy is communicating through extrasensory means or from one mind to another. Some may refer to it as mind reading.

Daniel only began using the typing process in 2014, so he types slower than Lyrica, who is about twenty years older. After I started working on The Unsuspected Heroes, I learned that Daniel would rate books for accuracy. The highest grade for a book I remember him giving at the time was an eight, meaning 80 percent of the information in that book was accurate. That book was Anna, Grandmother of Jesus by Claire Heartsong. When Daniel's mother, Connie, sat down to read Heartsong's text aloud so that Daniel could hear, he typed, "I know this story already but love hearing it again." At the time, this threw Connie since she had never read the story to him.

I began researching and writing The Unsuspected Heroes in 2014. I was on a mission to seek Truths and reveal them in a less threatening way than nonfiction. I wanted to plant seeds. With it, I started reading many books on spiritual evolution, God, creation, the soul, multidimensionality, aliens, and spiritual gurus throughout history. From these texts, I'd pose questions to Daniel through Connie. Unfortunately, this process was long and tedious. My only way to Daniel was through his mother. With nearly a thousand miles separating us and telepathy not being my strength, I soon realized that writing The Unsuspected Heroes would take years.

ENTER SHAUNA KALICKI, THE CHANNEL

In 2016, while in Colorado preparing for a Peru adventure, I went through the Munay Ki shamanic initiation rites. One of the women performing the rituals was Shauna Kalicki. After one ceremony, Shauna approached me and shared that she sensed a powerful male presence around me while performing an initiation. Later, she shared that it was Archangel Metatron.

Before that trip to Peru, my dear friend Lyrica had entered hospice because her body was shutting down. Shauna had made a last-minute decision to join the group I was traveling with, and while in Peru, we engaged in many conversations. During those one-on-one discussions, I shared that I was writing books revealing how Autists work selflessly behind the scenes on humanity's spiritual evolution. In a quiet moment on Machu Picchu, I asked Shauna if she sensed that Lyrica would transition soon.

She tuned in and heard a resounding, "No! She's not going to pass."

As I write this, Lyrica has not transitioned. However, she has teetered between life and death throughout her embodiment and ascension process on more than one occasion. She writes about her experiences in her 2021 book, Lyrica's Journey of Ascension.

When I returned from my Peru adventure, I agreed to reconnect with Shauna to discuss our trip experiences. After continuing our conversations, I suspected that Shauna had a past life connection with Daniel. She shared that she was an apprentice of a well-known mythic figure that I knew was Daniel in a past life. I shared the information with Daniel, who confirmed that he knew Shauna and called her Rasew. He even typed a message, instructing his mother to send Shauna a sacred oil his father had created. While called Sophia Oil, Daniel later revealed in a telepathic message, "Perhaps another name would be Mary's oil or Magdalene oil, not suggesting that the name be changed ... perhaps an alignment to this idea."

When Connie mailed the oil to Shauna, Daniel typed, “Sacred oil on the way to the Gatekeeper,” creating even more mystery to the connection between Daniel and my new friend.

For some reason, I am a connector. I see this now; throughout my life, I have connected people. It became clear that Shauna had work to do with more than one member of our small group. She connected with Daniel and another Autist named Leilah, who had been quiet in our group for quite some time.

In an email, Shauna shared with a group of us her mystical experiences when using the Sophia Oil. She explained that she worked with Archangel Michael, St. Germaine, Lord Maitreya, and other Ascended Masters. That group included the parents of three Autists.

Shortly after receiving Shauna’s email, Leilah’s mother replied to the group with a note from Leilah. “Dear Shauna, I pray for your continued awakening. Please open your heart to me, and I will visit. I can help you. Love everlasting, Leilah.”

Leilah came out of her shell and began sending Shauna emails through her mother. Shauna came on board, interested in exploring Truths I would reveal in The Unsuspected Heroes and its sequels. She demonstrated psychic abilities and picked up messages from Archangels. But our discovery took a substantial turn in 2018 when she and I were on a hike, and Shauna suddenly said, “Leilah is here.”

Given that Leilah lived nearly two thousand miles away, and they had never met in person, I was a bit skeptical yet curious. At the time, I was researching The Ra Material (The Law of One) for The Unsuspected Heroes and had many questions. I knew these high vibrational Autists had the answers. “If you have Leilah’s attention,” I asked Shauna, “can she answer some questions on the Law of One?”

Leilah answered a series of questions through Shauna, and then I asked if Leilah would help us get information for our books. She agreed, with the caveat that Daniel would need to verify the information that we received and that codenames were to be used to assure that Shauna was speaking with her (Leilah) and that I, for some unknown reason, be present.

Before I considered this, I needed to confirm that Shauna had spoken with Leilah. Shortly after our hike, I wrote to Leilah’s mother and said that her daughter showed up to Shauna psychically. I asked if she could verify this with Leilah.

Very quickly, I received an email back.

Hi Alex,

I just asked Leilah if she knew who emailed me yesterday, and she typed, “I talked to Shauna on Sunday, and she understood me.” She didn’t want to add more, but it seems like they made a connection!

Our fiction series was now moving and shaking! With the Autist talking telepathically to Shauna, this psychic communication saved us much time. We began sessions where Shauna would go into a meditative trance, and I would ask questions and record the sessions. Connie would transcribe the sessions and ask Daniel for verifications.

Shortly after Shauna began conversing with the Autists, mostly Leilah and Daniel, though Lyrica came in from time to time, Shauna began channeling messages from Archangels and Ascended Masters, including Archangel Michael, Metatron, Anna, the grandmother of Jesus, Joachim, Mother Mary, Jesus, Mary Magdalene, and others. These communications went on until October 2018, and then one day in a channeling session, a voice came through and said, “This is Cerian.”

We learned that Cerian is a conscious, sentient, collective expression of an energetic field or vibrational pattern of beings from the sixteenth dimension. It is a collective consciousness speaking through one voice, similar in scope to The Ra Material: Law of One. “I am Ra” is a sixth-dimension collective expression channeled by Carla Rueckert in the 1980s.

Why Cerian came to the party also proved to be interesting.

CHAPTER 3:

Who Is Rasew?

This book is about the awakening of the here and now rather than the future state.

—Daniel

WHEN SHAUNA CAME INTO THE FOLD, Daniel never called her by her name. Instead, he has always called her Rasew (sounds like RAZU). For the longest time, we assumed that it went back to a past life. Although we are still not clear, it may go back to Cerian. After Cerian made its entry, we had a channeling and brought in Daniel.

Daniel shared in that channeling, “Rasew and I share a higher aspect. It is Cerian. It is easier for the channel, Rasew, to access Cerian. Sometimes I may be busy in an alternate reality known as ‘Daniel,’ but my higher self and Rasew’s higher self can tap into each other much more readily than if we call in myself or if we ask Rasew to call in herself and her higher self to connect with me.”

Think of the higher self as the soul. The soul is multidimensional and has multiple experiences in various dimensions at the same time. Both Shauna and Daniel have an existence as an aspect of Cerian, an energetic pattern within the sixteenth dimension. During our channelings, it was easier for Shauna to connect with Cerian than for her to link up with Rasew to get a hold of Daniel.

When Shauna channels Daniel, he shows us time and space, and individuality; in other words, Daniel is there. When channeling Cerian, another aspect of Daniel and Shauna, they are both there. It is a shared consciousness and experience, and they can both readily tap into it.

After explaining it, Daniel said, “This is why we would suggest using Cerian; it is a good channel.”

OUR ROLES FOR THIS BOOK

This book is nonfiction. It shares what the New Earth is now, not in the future, but on our planet today.

Our group took the gathering of the information and writing of this book seriously. We started with Connie, Shauna, and me, and then Daniel quickly jumped in—in many different ways.

Connie and I generated questions, guiding where the book would go. Shauna provided the foundation of the content through channeling sessions in which I interviewed her. During the information gathering, Shauna connected primarily with Cerian, Mother Mary, and Daniel. Connie transcribed the channelings and sought accuracy ratings from Daniel. Throughout this process, Connie and I also intuitively discerned the information. Daniel provided not only ratings but encouraged direction on future channelings and provided comments. Those comments are shared in this book with a different font to demonstrate it was through facilitated communications. In comparison, dialogue from Daniel is mainly from a channeling session (unless noted).

Once the channeling sessions were complete and transcribed, I took the highly-rated content and wrote the book using inner guidance. As you will see, Connie provided other stories as well.

Given that my education was in science, I applied scientific principles to ensure that we did not bias the channel or the generated information. Shauna did not know the book's subject matter or the questions until I asked her during the sessions. She also was not privy to the transcripts or recordings until the content was complete.

We all took great care to gather this information and deliver it in a way that may open a newcomer to spiritual concepts yet provide unique content to satisfy those who have been on the path for years. As noted earlier, we have included an extensive glossary at the back of this book to support your understanding and journey.

WHAT IS CHANNELING?

A medium is a specific type of psychic who mediates communication between individuals and spirits or other-dimensional entities. This process of communication is known as channeling. For quite some time, Shauna's communication was psychic, where she would relay what she saw, felt, and heard.

In 2018, a small group, including Shauna and me, went to Chaco Canyon to perform a summer solstice ceremony. Shortly after that ritual, Shauna surprised me when she entered a trancelike state during a session, and Mother Mary spoke through her.

Some mediums retain awareness of the events, whereas a trance medium generally goes into a trance and does not retain an understanding of the discussion. As I understand it, Shauna can come out of a session with some awareness of the session, but the details generally escape her.

After Cerian emerged in late 2018, most of the information from our sessions came from this sixteenth-dimensional collective. My experience interviewing Shauna for this book was different from our earlier work together. For this book, most of the material came from channeling Daniel, though Cerian, Mother Mary, and other entities would observe and join in at times.

Perhaps Daniel's interest was because his mother, Connie, took a pivotal role in transcribing the sessions. Then, of course, she'd ask him to verify the information. I think it goes deeper than that, however. I believe the information contained herein needs to come out and is important for humanity's contribution in bringing the New Earth awareness to a new level. I learned how critical Daniel's role was in verifying the material when a trickster entity hijacked one session.

CHANNELING A TRICKSTER

When Cerian and Daniel came in during one session, another entity, who claimed to be an aspect of Daniel, stole the show. Shauna later shared what she had been experiencing during the channeling. In the beginning, Daniel worked on Shauna's third eye. With a finger, he spiraled her forehead, and suddenly Shauna saw in much more vivid detail and proceeded to describe this newcomer with great clarity. The entity claimed to be an angel named Daveed.

I asked the first question and knew it wasn't Daniel. Shauna's mannerisms, speech, and the length of the answers were different. When Daniel speaks, Shauna's head frequently oscillates or swings back and forth at a steady speed. His answers are usually very concise. When Cerian speaks, it uses the first-person plural pronoun "we," and the information is typically lengthier than Daniel. The others also have different descriptors.

After a lengthy opening statement, I knew Shauna wasn't channeling Daniel. "Who's speaking?" I asked.

“This is Daveed.”

Daveed introduced himself as an angelic aspect of Daniel. After the channeling, Shauna explained that this newcomer would speak, and Daniel would pop in, replacing Daveed. This back-and-forth morphing continued throughout the channeling.

Typically, after a channeling session, I send the audio file to Connie and wait for the transcription. The morning after this session, though, I messaged Connie to ask Daniel if an aspect of him claiming to be an angel came into the channeling.

His response was, “No. It was a trickster. Be careful.”

Daniel instructed Connie not to listen to the channeling, adding that the information was not for our book.

I share this to show how vital Daniel’s role became in this project. Other entities claiming to work for the light can take over channeling sessions even after we’ve called in protection and invoked only the highest and best good. There is some logic to their appearance, in that the tricksters provide the “highest and best good” for themselves. Daniel is a safeguard to ensure other entities do not taint the information shared.

DANIEL’S COMMENTS ON THIS BOOK

In one channeling, Daniel wanted to share information about this book, and I share it here. The words in quotes are Daniel’s messages.

“Energetically, we see lights shining around the books coming out. This book is about the Autists and the awakening of the here and now rather than the future state.”

There is much information published about the New Earth. Many of these books suggest that an event will occur, and then we’ll be on the New Earth. They speak more to the future. We are here to tell you that the New Earth is here now.

“The book is about humanity’s accountability to themselves and not pushing it out to somebody else to fix it.”

Each of us is responsible for our awakening, and we can’t expect a savior to come in and save us.

“The Autist Collective works very closely with humankind, but humankind must step up and take accountability for what they have created and what they choose to create.”

We are all creators of our reality. If we don’t like what we see, it’s our responsibility to own that we’ve created it and fix it.

“The Autist Collective is here to assist, but our work alone, without humanity being accountable for its sovereignty, will not matter if humanity does not take the needed steps to look at themselves and do the work.”

Doesn’t this sound like you can lead a horse to water, but you can’t make them drink? The Autist Collective is a group of Ethereal Autists who work around the planet to awaken humanity, but humanity has to make the choice.

“Humanity is accountable for its sovereignty. It is your birthright.”

WHO IS RASEW?

You are a sovereign being. Live your life as you will. You are a supreme being, but not to any other. You are unique and have a right to individuality, free of the illusion that you are separate from Source. Accept ownership of your entire self, including your shadows.

“We see that these books can be a portal for many, and you have behind you the Autists, not only of planet Earth but of various realms, galaxies, universes that are here to assist with this. Know this, be aware of this, and continue to work on this. It is important!”

Consider that this book is a doorway or a bridge to understanding a new perspective. Be open to the miracles it will ignite within.
