

INTRODUCTION

“I have said, ye are Gods.” —Psalms 82:6 (KJV)

THIS BOOK IS NOT FOR EVERYONE. It is not a spirituality book for beginners nor a prayer book. It is not visionary fiction. It’s not solely a spiritual memoir, but you may call it a spiritual memoir “plus” the insights of higher-dimensional beings.

This book is nonfiction and intended for readers who are awakening or awakened during our current planetary shift in consciousness. It is for the awakened and awakening Lightworkers, Starseeds, 144000, Wayshowers, New Children, Autists, and the Awakened Ones. It is for the Light Team.

Much of the information within Gods in the Game is channeled by Shauna Kalicki and from the Ascended Master Mother Mary, the Ethereal Autist Daniel, and Cerian. I’m the first to admit that information from twelfth-dimension Mother Mary, sixteenth-dimension Cerian, and the all-dimensional Daniel does not always agree. But that shouldn’t be surprising; everyone comes from a different—not higher or lower—point of reference, including me.

GODS IN THE GAME

What makes this channeled material different from some other books is that I am not the channel. The channel is Shauna Kalicki. I discern the channeled material through my set of filters, always intending to write and reveal the Truth.

Please know that I am a fellow journeyer, writer, and intuitive. If you have read my earlier work, you know I strive to reveal Truths that have been lost or hidden from humanity. I consider myself the interviewer and, in many cases, the interpreter of the information. Still, as you will see, much of the material is given in its original dialogue, especially if it could be interpreted in many ways.

At times, I provide both the channeled information and follow with my interpretation of it. Not because I want to be repetitive or put in my two cents, but because I am not perfect, and your interpretation may take you elsewhere—which is good. I do not want to hinder your experience, but add to it where I can.

Other times, when the messages are evident to me, yet the language of the channeled entity is complex, I break down the messages and paraphrase them to help make the reading experience easier.

Gods in the Game is a standalone book. As I indicated in the preface, this book expands on the concepts presented in Destination New Earth. I do not want you to feel you have to read Destination New Earth first. Admittedly, though, I hope you're inspired to read it after this book because it is energetically a boosting experience in itself.

Parts I and II of this book either serve as a refresher for the Destination New Earth reader or summarize portions of that book for those who haven't read it. Those two sections cover autism's role in the evolutionary shift and provide essential information on the New Earth so we can expand on certain concepts in the later sections.

In Part III, I dive into the various types and stages of awakening that humanity experiences and discuss a higher level of awakening that the planet needs now to jumpstart a collective evolutionary shift.

INTRODUCTION

I also discuss the difference between awakening, enlightenment, and ascension.

The later parts of the book jump into topics that Daniel wanted to discuss. He had particular messages for humanity about God, and in his words, “It is a fabric of reality that is completely unknown to humans. Humans are only scratching the surface.” He also wanted to talk about Lemuria and sovereignty and the state of the planet. I explored these topics further with Cerian and Mother Mary.

Some of the “what-if” prompts explored within Gods in the Game include:

- What if you manifest and create your life from the perspective of energy?
- What if you created your own world, and no one else is responsible for it but you?
- What if you made choices—you wrote your storyline and are constantly writing your storyline—and nobody else is except you?
- What if there is a Spark of Life within you, and you have the potential to access the Spark of Light within, which is God Consciousness?
- What if you can work with that God Consciousness if you choose to be responsible or accountable for your own life and thoughts?
- What if the cream of the crop, those awakened Lightworkers, Starseeds, 144000, New Children, and others, were to experience the ascension right now? Do you think that is why you’re here?
- What if I told you that you’re not here to ascend but to experience an evolutionary collective shift in consciousness?

GODS IN THE GAME

- What if I told you—you are a God in the game?
- What if I told you that humans created God?

I hear the cries of, “Blasphemy, heresy, sacrilege!”

Didn't Yeshua (Jesus) say, “I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High” (Psalms 82:6 (KJV)). In this case, isn't it more blasphemous to think otherwise?

Let me add one more “what if.” What if God shows up for us when we show up for God?

My interest has always been to help readers understand these concepts. Since each reader is not at the same point in their spiritual journey, whether I write fiction or nonfiction, I provide a glossary of terms at the back of my books and online at my website (alexmarcoux.com/ascension-glossary). We are all on different paths, and I don't want to lose anyone. I encourage you to refer to the glossary when unfamiliar with my terms.

Since 2011, I have been learning about what this book calls “Pure Autism.” Who are the Pure Autists? Certainly, Destination New Earth shares more, but to simplify, let's just say they are higher energetic beings. I've devoted over a decade to learning from them, studying, and writing books like The Unsuspected Heroes, Destination New Earth, and now Gods in the Game.

Over the years, I've sensed that some spiritual teachers, particularly those asking to be followed, are not authentic. Yet, I've never felt inauthenticity with the Ethereal Autists I know. They have never asked to be followed nor demanded anything from anyone. They serve us and ask much from their families and caregivers to support them while doing their work, all because they love us.

I used fiction to communicate their stories in The Unsuspected Heroes. I chose that path because fiction hits the reader where they're at. If the reader is unawakened, they will read a story, and seeds will be planted. Those seeds may never germinate, but the reader could become more open to metaphysical concepts. If the reader is awakened, they will have an entirely different experience.

As in the earlier book, Destination New Earth, this information is not exactly warm and fuzzy. Some of it is downright controversial. But it is time to make it known to humanity. This book may resonate with you or it may challenge you. I ask that you read this with an open heart and mind—that is your job. My job has always been to convey the information that resonates as Truth.

Chapter 1:

HOW TO COMMUNICATE WITH NONSPEAKING AUTISTICS

Facilitated communication is training wheels for the facilitator (not the Autist).

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE NOT READ Destination New Earth and are not familiar with the role of autism in planetary ascension, this section will bring you up to speed. Otherwise, it will serve as a refresher.

I have personally met and worked with three Autists who are nonverbal, nonspeaking, or some suggest “beyond” verbal. They do not voice words. You may wonder, “How exactly do they communicate?”

Since Daniel was such a pivotal contributor to this book and our last book, I’ll use him as an example. But understand that each Autist is different.

Daniel communicates using a supported typing method called FC (facilitated communication). In Daniel’s case, he uses a plastic QWERTY letterboard. A facilitator, his mother, Connie, holds his hand and stabilizes it so that the movement is more pinpointed and accurate when he points to the letters to form words. When

Daniel messages in this manner, I show his written communication in a different font to demonstrate his letterboard communication.

I also have worked with Lyrica Marquez, the co-author of AWEtizm and Lyrica's Journey of Ascension. In Lyrica's case, she can point to a letterboard, computer keyboard, or tablet. But the principle is the same; the facilitator supports the autistic's hand or arm and sometimes provides ever-so-slight resistance so that the Autist "types" more accurately.

Daniel refers to this form of communication as training wheels. This method is very slow, and while people seem to think it may prove the autistic is actually communicating, it is the least favorite way for some autistics. Why? Energetically, it takes a lot out of them. Of course, I only speak for those I have met.

It's easier for Daniel, and the others, to convey more expansive topics, such as God, the planetary ascension, alternate dimensions, and the like, through psychic communications or telepathy. In both these methods, as in any psychic communication, the person communicating with Daniel must have a clean filter system to ensure accurate information. Another way Daniel shares is through Shauna Kalicki, the psychic medium.

A medium mediates communication between an individual and spirits or other-dimensional beings. Shauna is not a trance medium. She uses a mental form of mediumship where she is conscious. Rather than go into a trance, she opens to the communication—perhaps Cerian, Mother Mary, or Daniel—and conveys their messages. After the channeling, she often has a general sense of what came through, but the details sometimes get past her.

I have also witnessed Shauna channel many Ascended Masters over the years. Ascended Masters are those beings who lived in physicality (physical form) at one time and achieved the higher realms (ascended) in other lifetimes. You and I are now living in a physical form, though we are energetic beings.

When on a spiritual path, we strive to connect with our higher self or soul and embody that spiritual essence. We strive to integrate our soul's essence into our physical body.

Mother Mary ensured that “Humans can embody and carry that same energetic frequency [as their higher self].” There are risks with an Ethereal Autist embodying their complete essence, which I expand on later.

Some Ascended Masters I have witnessed Shauna channel are the Magdalenes, a secretive group within the Essenes, including Mother Mary, Mary Magdalene, Yeshua (Jesus), Anna (grandmother of Yeshua), and Joachim. The Magdalenes brought in a new awareness during Yeshua's lifetime, showing humanity that one can experience the higher self and sovereignty while in physicality. That is the work they did. That is the work we are now doing. During Yeshua's timeline, humanity was not ready as a collective to experience it.

I have also seen Shauna channel Archangel Metatron, Archangel Michael, and Cerian. In Cerian's case, the process is similar in scope to Carla L. Rueckert, who channeled the “I Am RA collective of sixth density” in the eighties, and Esther Hicks, who currently channels Abraham, “a group consciousness from the non-physical dimension.”

For those not reading our earlier book, the reason Cerian was deemed by Daniel a “good channel” is because Shauna and Daniel both have expressions of their soul in the collective of Cerian.

What exactly does that mean?

Each person is multidimensional at the soul level. Our soul has multiple “lifetimes” or expressions co-occurring. Shauna's and Daniel's souls have a soul expression in the sixteenth dimension as part of the group known as Cerian. I call them “expressions” because they are not physical in the sixteenth dimension. They are purely energetic, ethereal, or spiritual. So, when Cerian speaks, they speak with the wisdom of multiple expressions through one voice.

How Did We Verify the Information?

What was exciting about working on Destination New Earth was that in using a combination of these methods (facilitated communication, telepathy, other psychic processes, channeling), we developed a unique approach to verify the accuracy of the information coming through in channeling sessions.

I would sit with Shauna privately in a channeling session, and she would bring in a being we wanted to communicate with. I would ask questions that Connie and I had prepared. Shauna did not see the questions before the channelings or even know the book's subject matter. The sessions were audio recorded.

After the sessions, I would send the recordings to Connie, who would transcribe them. Connie is also intuitive, and we would review the recordings, each adding levels of discernment, and develop follow-up questions for future sessions to clarify the information that had come through.

Connie would then read the channeling transcripts to Daniel, no matter who was channeled, and he would grade the accuracy of each response using FC. He also would add information with FC or suggest we ask other questions in future sessions.

While writing Destination New Earth, we learned early on how other beings can contaminate the information when, in one session, a trickster came in, claiming to be an angelic aspect of Daniel. This entity hijacked the session. The following day, I asked Connie to check if this angel was indeed who he claimed to be. It wasn't. Daniel cautioned that we must not use that material for the book. The channeling was never transcribed.

GODS IN THE GAME

For this book, I was also given information from Daniel and Connie on messages he wanted to convey to humanity. This information mainly came from facilitated communication (FC). From these topics, I developed questions and asked whomever Shauna was channeling, either Cerian or Mother Mary. Connie assisted with transcribing, and Daniel monitored the transcription, ensuring a different entity hadn't hijacked the sessions.

Daniel had taken a significant role in Destination New Earth in that Shauna channeled him, and he became a considerable voice in that book. For this book, Cerian and Mother Mary spoke through Shauna, not Daniel, who communicated mostly through FC. However, given that an expression of Daniel's soul is one of those within the Cerian collective, Daniel's deeper insights are very present within these pages.

THE DEETS ON AUTISM

“No matter what, autism was supposed to happen. There are no accidents.”

—Daniel

I AM THE FIRST TO ADMIT that I do not have a bunch of initials after my name, like PhD, MD, PsyD, VIP, or even DMin. My degree is not in psychiatry or psychology, and I’m not a minister. I am a student of life. I do not seek to be a “specialist,” nor do I want to be followed. My role is to impart these teachings to help heal the planet because we all know that much needs to heal in this world.

Why listen to me? Over the years, those Autists I’ve met entrusted me with information and want me to bring their messages into the world. What has guided me through this process has been my inner guidance system, along with the encouragement of Autists and a small group I call my tribe.

Society says autism is a disorder.

Contemporary society witnesses autism and doesn’t understand it. Autism makes people uncomfortable. It frightens people. When humanity doesn’t understand something, humanity puts it in a box, and for autistics, that box is “autism.” For the autistic, the stigma is feeling less than, unworthy, and not normal . . . unless they are awakened. I will get to that.

Merriam-Webster defines autism as a variable developmental disorder that appears by age three and is characterized especially by difficulties in forming and maintaining social relationships, by impairment of the ability to communicate verbally or nonverbally, and by repetitive behavior patterns and restricted interests and activities.

Merriam-Webster defines a “disorder” as not functioning in a normal orderly healthy way.

Merriam-Webster also defines a “species” as a class of individuals having common attributes and designated by a common name.

I am here to tell you that autism is a species by itself.

Lemuria was an ancient civilization predating Atlantis. Autist-like energy has existed on Earth since the Lemurians lived on Earth. I say “energy” because everything is energy, and we will get to that.

It is time to highlight the real definition of autism and eliminate the term ASD (autism spectrum disorder) because it is not a disorder.

If an individual is here to experience Pure Autism, it is part of their Divine Blueprint. They are here serving in a capacity few understand.

I am not taking away from the challenges that autistics experience because those challenges are real. Autistics experience life differently than what society calls a “normal” human being. Society requires autistics to overcome their challenges, fit in, adapt, and make everyone else feel more comfortable around them.

Why? Why does humanity require autistics to change their behavior so that people feel better about themselves? When will society be more tolerant and willing to accept individual differences rather than demand conforming? In reality, these beings have expanded consciousness and intelligence.

As of 2023, one in thirty-six children have autism.

If we go back forty years, according to the CDC, the incidence of autism was four in 10,000 children. That number today, based on the surveillance year 2020, is one in thirty-six. Why the increase? There are many theories, and I am not here to debate them. However, I will mention a few.

Some suggest that the rate has increased because of environmental factors, such as childhood vaccinations. Others argue parents are getting older when conceiving their children, and others claim that social and political factors favor an autism diagnosis over others.

I met Lyrica Marquez, the nonspeaking co-author of AWEtizm, in 2011, and after meeting her, plus having a science background, I was curious. I looked into the theories of the sudden increase back then. In my heart, none of the “theories” offered an explanation that resonated as truth. The following is what I learned from the channelings conducted for Destination New Earth.

Do childhood vaccinations cause autism?

There is some truth to vaccinations causing autism, but not in the way most would think.

If someone incarnates and it is in their Divine Blueprint to experience Pure Autism, the vaccinations will indeed trigger autism. Did it cause it? I guess that’s up for debate. Because if they weren’t vaccinated, something else would eventually activate it.

This information was indeed difficult for Connie to hear at first because when Daniel received his vaccinations, Connie saw Daniel slip away right after receiving the shots.

Daniel said that if the individual is here to experience Pure Autism, it will happen no matter what, and it is not an accident.

Vaccinations hurt some children.

Sadly, some children not destined for Pure Autism cannot absorb the inoculations and become damaged by them. They can become injured and brain damaged. Because their indicators resemble those behaviors of the Pure Autist, they get diagnosed with autism; however, they are not a Pure Autist if it's not in their soul assignment. We call those people hurt by vaccinations Medically Induced Autistics.

Why is the autism rate increasing?

The indication I got from the channelings was that the vaccinations didn't significantly cause the increase in autism rate. However, the vaccinations have hurt many children who cannot absorb the chemicals injected.

So why has the rate increased? It goes back to the battle between light and dark.

We are amid a spiritual evolution and revolution, and the Autists' work is needed on Earth today more than ever. More Autists will be incarnating and joining our society. When I wrote Destination New Earth, the autism rate based on the year 2016 was one in fifty-four. In four years, that's a 50 percent increase in the autism rate.

Scientists suggest the increase is because there is a growing awareness. That argument may hold when comparing data from 1980 to 2020 but not from 2016 to 2020. Don't you find this increase alarming? We will uncover the genuine reason for the increase later in the book.

In any case, Pure Autism is not a disorder. Pure Autists are brilliant, energetic, spiritual beings, a unique species, and here to assist humanity in its spiritual evolution.

Chapter 3:

A NEW SPECTRUM AND THE ROLE OF AUTISM IN THE SHIFT

*“No matter how limited or disabled the Autist body is, our minds are completely free.
Most of the time, we Autists are aware of our capacity to be free.”*

—Daniel

IT’S TIME SOCIETY STARTS TO THINK of autism as different, not less than; as a gift, not a reject; as intelligent, not brain damaged. It’s time to rename the spectrum; it is not the autism spectrum disorder (ASD) because it is not a developmental disorder. It’s time to understand the true scope of the diverse groups within the Autist spectrum.

An Autist is an autistic person who knowingly or unknowingly works on the planetary shift in consciousness, which is part of their Divine Blueprint.

No matter where they fit on the new spectrum, all autistics are part of a unique species experiencing life differently from average humans. Just like humanity has varying roles in this shift in consciousness, so do the Autists. We all have a role to play.

The new spectrum has three distinct groups, though others may exist. The three groups within the Pure Autism Spectrum are the Ethereal Autists, Bridge Autists, and Catalytic Autists.

All three Autists I've worked with, Daniel, Lyrica, and Leilah, are Ethereal Autists. While society considers these beings low functioning, nonverbal, mentally retarded, and on the high end of the ASD, they have expanded consciousness and intelligence. Sometimes, I call these Pure Autists "Sacred Autists" because it feels fitting as their energy more closely aligns with Lemurian energy, and we will dive deep into that later.

The Ethereal Autist, AKA Pure Autist

To understand how the Ethereal Autists experience life, I compare them to humankind.

Humans are energetic beings who have a physical experience.

There is more to a human than a physical body, as we have a higher self or a soul. When humans are on a spiritual path, we strive to embody our energetic essence in our physical form (physicality) while retaining the connection with the soul.

It is important to understand that humans can embody or infuse the Light (Divine Energy) from their higher selves into their physical bodies. This process may be called by many names, including spiritual embodiment, shifting consciousness, dimensional shift, enlightenment, and awakening.

Ethereal Autists are energetic beings having an energetic experience.

The frequency of the Pure Autist energy is so high that they cannot embody all their essence because it would fry their circuits. Daniel shares, "The Pure Autist calibration of their energy and mind into physicality is like putting a jet engine on a go-cart.” The Autist body can’t handle the energy (the Light). So, the Ethereal Autists remain lightly tethered to their physical bodies. They are not entirely in their bodies and are experiencing other realities.

When someone looks at an autistic and concludes that “they aren’t all there,” that isn’t far from the truth. But the psychiatric or medical conclusion implies that the autistic is impaired, not that these brilliant beings simply tend to matters elsewhere. Because the Autist is elsewhere, we see communication challenges and various behaviors that baffle us.

When you’re distracted by something, are you all there? In your distractions, have you had communication challenges? Perhaps moments of clumsiness? Of course, you have. We all have.

The Ethereal Autist experiences life in an entirely different way from how humanity experiences life. They experience multidimensionality, other lifetimes, planets, and universes. Just as we can’t imagine what it is like to have the ethereal experience, the Ethereal Autist cannot imagine what it is like to have a “normal” physical life. Their reality is seeing time and space. The Ethereal Autists have no veil obscuring their relationship with Source (God).

While the Ethereal Autist has challenges communicating with humans, they converse with other Autists in other realms. They communicate with the Ascended Masters, angels, galactic beings (yes—aliens), and other life-forms. Much of this communication is telepathic.

Bridge and Catalytic Autists

Two other groups within the Pure Autism Spectrum are the Bridge Autists and Catalytic Autists.

As the name implies, the Bridge Autists are more embodied than the Ethereal Autists and serve as a bridge between humanity and the higher realms and dimensions where the Ethereal Autists work. Given that they are more embodied and can manage better in their physical form, these autistics may have language skills and more control of their bodies. They serve us in ways we do not understand, and they may not understand either. They may be aware of their role in this shift, or they may not, depending on if they have awakened.

Catalytic Autists may be likened to those labeled with Asperger syndrome (AS) or Asperger's. They are generally considered high-functioning and on the low end of ASD by society's medical standards.

The Catalytic Autists understand how to participate in life and are in control of their bodies, unlike the Ethereal and Bridge Autists. Yet, they are still not fully integrated.

“These Autists work with specific energies that are creative catalysts to shift consciousness. Some of them are aware that they are doing this work. Others are unaware, but, in both cases, they assist humanity in ways society does not understand.”<sup>1</sup>

The Autist Collective Consists of Silent Heroes

The Autist Collective consists of Ethereal Autists around the planet. Their work is to help awaken humanity. Humanity unknowingly has agreed to undergo an evolutionary shift, often called the New Earth. Autists have that awareness and hold that vision for the world and humanity.

Daniel says, “We hold the construct and infrastructure of the New Earth.”

In truth, everything is energy, whether matter (solid, liquid, gas, plasma), thoughts, words, emotions, ether, and so on. Everything is energy. Everything has a frequency. The Pure Autists work with energy, and while they create situations to help us awaken to it and experience it, humanity needs to move with the energy and expectation that something bigger is coming in.

To do the work the Sacred Autists must do, they must remain nonjudgmental. This work is something humanity would not be able to do today because humans permit emotions to cloud their judgment. We use the labels “good” and “bad or “right” and “wrong.” Everything and everyone has a role to play in the shift, and the Ethereal Autists can see the bigger picture and remain neutral.

The Autist Collective works with other Autists around the planet and even Autists from other planets. It is a group of “silent” and unsung heroes ushering in the New Earth and shedding light for humanity to witness, experience, and awaken to the truth about who and what humanity is.

Does Awakening the Autists Matter?

All Autists play a pivotal role in rebuilding our planet and bringing in the New Earth and the Divine Feminine energies. This information is underrepresented in written literature, yet its function is critical.

However, other groups, called by different names, are also working on bringing in the New Earth and Divine Feminine energies. Those other groups include the Lightworkers, Starseeds, Galactic Beings, Wayshowers, the 144,000, and New Children (Indigo, Crystal, Rainbow, Diamond, and Gold Children). These groups are connected; for example, some Lightworkers are Starseeds. The New Children are Starseeds. They all have roles.

You have a role in bringing in the New Earth also. We will get to that.

I’ve mentioned that not all Autists are awake or aware of their purpose or role. In their case, they will serve their function whether conscious of it or not—except, of course, it’s all subject to free will.

GODS IN THE GAME

Something that touched me so profoundly when I first met Lyrica Marquez and read her book was how she did not like her life before she awakened to her truth and remembered her role. She didn't care to be here. But this shifted when she awakened and remembered who she was and why she was here. Then, she loved her life, realizing she had a great purpose.

When you know your truth and live purposely, your life becomes filled with joy—the joy of purpose, fulfillment, and love for humanity. Energetically, when you're working on something you're meant to do, you're fueled by a greater power and experience the joy of being.

The Autists have their own awakening process. This was one of the reasons I wanted to write The Unsuspected Heroes, my visionary fiction novel that reveals the process Lyrica went through.

In the story, the Autist was the hero in the hero's journey, initially denying the call to adventure because she didn't know who she was. Then, she accepted the call. How? Her mother loved and honored her daughter unconditionally with her autism. In one distinct moment, the autistic character saw her truth and awakened, similar to Lyrica's experience.

Why is awakening the Autists important? Granted, they will do their work whether they know who they are and what their role is in this shift, but if you have an autistic loved one in your life, wouldn't you want them to love their life? Wouldn't you want to honor what they are doing for the planet? Wouldn't you like to thank them for their service?
