Gods in the Game

Messages on the Awakening and Consciousness Shift

We are here to help trigger a collective shift in consciousness.

We're here to awaken, remember who we are, and shift from 3D to 5D, elevating humanity to its divine inheritance. It isn't a done deal. It's part of a game: a battle between light and dark, and Light Team members must achieve a "higher level" of awakening to activate the shift. Roll up your sleeves, learn this higher level, and experience light-code activations.

Alex Marcoux collaborates with Psychic Medium Shauna Kalicki, Ethereal Autist Daniel, and Connie to expand concepts introduced in their earlier book, Destination New Earth. It's your turn to receive messages from Cerian, the collective, Daniel, and Mother Mary on God, Lemuria, and Sophia on the evolutionary shift.

The open-minded and open-hearted will never view the awakening, global events, and God the same.

"Not until all the players wake up does the true game begin."

Everyone has a role...

Excerpt

We are amid a greater awakening. It has been occurring for some time, beginning with the New Age movement in the seventies. It started as a slow trickle, building momentum, and will continue until a significant portion of humanity has awakened to a "higher level."

As presented earlier, there are various levels of awakening; each person will have their individual experience. There is no right or wrong way to awaken. Realizing that humanity is being and has been controlled is an awakening. However, it is not the higher level of awakening that humanity needs to reach to achieve the collective shift in consciousness from fear to love or 3D to 5D.

What is needed now is for humanity to awaken to themselves as energetic beings and be aware that they can work with that energy to create their Divine Blueprint, which is another way of saying to integrate one's higher self into physicality or simply live their authentic self. For some people, this integration is to achieve spiritual embodiment or enlightenment.

I say "some" because not everyone is here to experience this level of awakening. However, everyone has a role in this shift, a Divine Blueprint. And everyone is here to play it. Your role is critical to this evolutionary shift we are on the brink of. What your role is only you can determine.

It is unclear if, in our timeline, we will achieve the planetary shift in consciousness and experience the New Earth collectively. We agreed to this dimensional shift. Cerian, Mother Mary, and Daniel agree that what will happen has not yet been determined. If it happens, it can happen quickly or in hundreds of years. Much of our fate is up to humanity. Whether you identify as a Lightworker, Starseed, 144000, Wayshower, one of the New Children, embodied Ascended Master, or an Autist, you are a member of the Light Team, and we agreed to be the frontline unsung heroes and heroines in this revolution and evolution.

If you have made it this far in the book, I hope you realize your importance in this shift. ...

New Book Shares Insights on Autism, God, and the New Human

Could it be that the autism rate has increased because the Autists' work is essential to humanity's spiritual evolution?

Jenness Press will publish Gods in the Game: Messages on the Awakening and Consciousness Shift by Alex Marcoux in paperback and ebook on March 19, 2024.

Why has the autism rate increased by 50% in four recent years, and what does it have to do with humankind's spiritual evolution? Since 2011, award-winning author Alex Marcoux has researched the Autists, and Gods in the Game offers a unique explanation for this increase. Marcoux teams up again with Shauna Kalicki, Connie, and Daniel, uncovering new messages from Masters of Ancient Wisdom. Gods in the Game follows their award-winning book Destination New Earth, providing new insights into the new human, New Earth, and God.

Readers' Favorite says, "Five stars. Fresh, new insight, well-written and enlightening! Explains the differences between awakening, enlightenment, and ascension. Delves into the battle between light and darkness. Beautiful messages about oneness and spreading love. Delves into the gift of autism, dimensions, consciousness, and the shift that separated us from the Source. Enjoyable."

Alex Marcoux is a multi-award-winning author of visionary fiction and spirituality books. She considers herself a truth-seeker and has woven hidden truths into her work, whether writing suspense novels or spiritual books. For over thirteen years, she has been on a journey, learning about the sacred mysteries and magic of autism and its relationship to humanity's spiritual evolution.

Daniel is a nonspeaking autistic man assisting in humanity's evolution. Connie is Daniel's mother and is committed to sharing information on the Autist Collective. Shauna Kalicki is a psychic medium and channels the Ascended Masters, Cerian, and Ethereal Autists.

Ask Alex Marcoux

Seeker of hidden truths.
Author and publisher of
Gods in the Game,
Destination New Earth and
The Unsuspected Heroes.

Who is your new book, Gods in the Game, for?

Gods in the Game is for those who are awakening and awakened. It is about what the New Earth is today, not its future state. Some readers may identify as Lightworkers, Starseeds, Wayshowers, the 144000, New Children (Indigo, Crystal, Rainbow, etc.), or those simply on a spiritual path seeking this shift in consciousness or journey from 3D to 5D or the New Earth.

What is "the awakening" and "the consciousness shift?"

I think of "the awakening" as the slow dissolution of the veil of consciousness, which triggers various types of awakenings in our lives. The consciousness shift is a change in frequencies and dimensions from a lower, fear-based consciousness to one of a higher, lighter vibration of unconditional love. We are currently partaking in an evolutionary path of triggering a collective shift in consciousness.

What is the Divine Blueprint? And how do we navigate to it?

The Divine Blueprint is the path to live your Soul's Truth and destiny. It is to live authentically with your soul's essence in this world. Source guides us to live it. Each of us is a compass. When we live authentically, our lives are in the flow, and when we are off course, things can be challenging. Our lives are a compass, and our Divine Blueprint is true north.

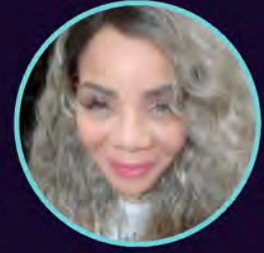

What is the meaning of New Human to you?

The New Human represents those going through this consciousness shift. There is a symbiotic relationship between New Humans and New Earth. They induce each other. The New Human clears themselves of the veil of consciousness, acknowledges their sovereignty, and awakens as energetic beings and creators, aware that they can work with energy to consciously create their Divine Blueprint.

ASK Connie

Mother of Ethereal Autist Daniel, Messenger for the Autist Collective, contributor to Destination New Earth and Gods in the Game.

What is the Autist Collective?

The Autist Collective is a group of silent heroes, nonspeaking Autists working around the planet to help humanity through this consciousness shift. Think of them as God's Secret Service. They are the leaders in the awakening; without their work, humanity would not be as far along in its evolution. They work much like a beehive with other Masters, Galactic Beings, Angels, Autists, and people around the planet.

What is an example of something the Autists are doing for humanity?

Think of the New Earth as a global consciousness shift, and the Autists have been sent to usher it in. The Autists hold the construct and infrastructure of the New Earth in their vision through their ability to hyper-focus. This is not something a neurotypical person can do. While holding that vision, they work on the New Earth through multidimensional counterparts, in different dimensions simultaneously.

What is the spiritual war?

The spiritual war is the age-old battle between Light and Darkness. It has occurred since Lemuria when a group separated to remain in control of humanity. How does it play out today? Some music, movies, TV, media, social media, and certain drugs are designed to distract us, thus keeping humanity from realizing its divine truth and evolving. Daniel adds another aspect to this war, and that is our own inner conflict ...

What is the "veil of consciousness," and how can we remove it?

The veil is amnesia. Humanity forgot its divinity. It is that we are ignorant of our Higher Self. It was put in place by those wanting to control humanity. Removing it is tricky and must be slow because humanity is not ready for the truth. Even those who claim to see beyond the veil do not fully see it. There is a group of Autists whose soul focus is the safe removal of the veil, and when it occurs, that'll be the awakening.

ASK Shauna Kalicki

What can we do to assist in the consciousness shift?

Everyone has a role in this shift. We must recognize that we are energetic beings who are expressions of Source and constantly manifest our world through our thoughts, words, feelings, and choices. We are the creators of it all and responsible for its unfolding. Once we truly understand this concept, we can access our Divine Blueprint and live our authentic selves.

What is the Divine Feminine?

The Divine Feminine is part of the New Earth Energies and critical for this shift. As we work on our own awakening, humanity's vibrational patterns change, and we can access this Divine Feminine frequency. We are open to receiving this information now. The Divine Feminine is not about women returning to power—it's about balancing the masculine and feminine energy internally and externally.

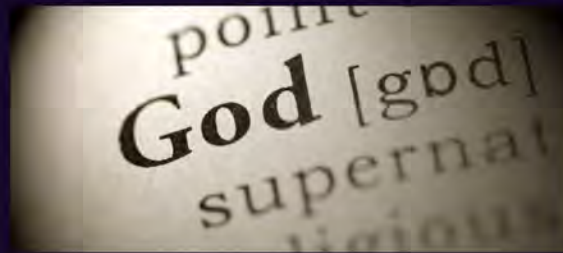

Psychic Medium. Channel for the Cerian collective, Ascended Masters and Ethereal Autists. Contributor to Destination New Earth and Gods in the Game.

What is God?

The term "God" is a human construct created to define the Source of our existence. It is humanity's attempt to define the undefinable. The patriarchy personified God erroneously, and while the concept of God is flawed, it does not mean that the Source behind all things does not exist. The truth is that no human can understand Source Consciousness, what It is or Isn't.

Is chaos necessary for change, and how can we stay out of fear?

The systems no longer serve us or our environment. Our current systems—financial, political, educational, healthcare, media, etc.—are failing and creating what appears to be chaos. Chaos is the precursor to great change. It is here to awaken humanity. Now is the time to stay centered and calm and push out more love, kindness, and compassion for yourself and others.
